

LORI ARMSTRONG

Lori Armstrong is the Assistant Director at the University of Florida First Coast Child Protection Team. She earned a Bachelor's of Science in Psychology from the University of Central Florida. Lori started her career as an investigator with the Department of Children and Families and specialized in sexual abuse and human trafficking investigations. She started with the Child Protection Team (forensic pediatrics) in 2010 and continues to work with minor victims of abuse and neglect. Lori was the Co-Chair of the Northeast Human Trafficking Coalition from January 2014 through March 2015. She is also a Victim Advocate through the Attorney General's Office. Lori continues to be very passionate about helping victims of human trafficking become survivors and strives to end human trafficking.

