

BOB BALDWIN

Bob Baldwin is Executive Director of PARC Foundation. The mission of PARC Foundation is through heart, mind, body, and spirit strengthening children and communities. Age prides opportunity, and Bob has been fortunate to work in many different professions through the years. From the restaurant business to owning his own bookstore, and as a nonprofit professional. Bob is certified in Myers Briggs and DISC personality profiles and a Covey Seven Habits and Focus facilitator. Bob serves has served as a member of Small Business Administration Advisory Committee, Seniors on a Mission board, Blueprint for Prosperity board, Hubbard House board and various other volunteer commitments. When Bob is not working he is enjoying time with his two daughters, two grandchildren, and wife of 46 years. Being blessed with two daughters has given him a heart for organizations like Her Song, and the importance of supporting the most vulnerable.

